Fowler Appointed Chairman of TEDC

VEDC President Dale Fowler recently accepted the appointment as Chairman of the Texas Economic Development Council's (TEDC) Board of Directors at their Annual Membership Meeting held earlier this month. He has been an active member of the state association of economic development professionals since 2002 and transitioned to lead the organization from having served on their executive committee for four years. The TEDC consists of more than 800 members representing over 500 public and private economic development organizations. They support the economic growth of Texas and develop strategies that promote a positive business climate in our state.

Mr. Fowler is a Certified Economic Developer and brings more than 30 years of customer service in economic and community development to his role as President of VEDC, and was honored to be named to the list of North America's Top 50 Economic Developers by his peers in 2018.
