Community Profile

Victoria, Texas, known as the South Texas Crossroads, is one of the oldest cities in Texas. Highway 77, 87 and 59 (the future I-69) all intersect in Victoria. With a population of more than 92,000 and a retail trade area of over 250,000, Victoria is a cultural, historic and economic hub for the surrounding seven counties.

Victoria truly has it all! An outstanding location in the crossroads of several major Texas highways, a close proximity to a variety of transportation and shipping options and an outstanding workforce that values the satisfaction of a job well done are but a few of the qualities Victoria has to offer!

We encourage you to take some time and learn more about what Victoria has to offer you and your business.
